Sixth Sunday of Easter It seems that vineyards are sprouting up Thomas can be an example for all of us. I don't mean in his lack of faith, although most of us probably have at one time or another doubted just like Thomas. What I mean as an example is that Thomas got a second chance. Jesus appeared again to the disciples in the upper room, this time with Thomas there. Thomas was given another chance to make his confession of faith. Through God's divine mercy, the same happens to us. We are given second chances (and sometimes third, fourth, or even fifth chances!). The call is to believe Migrant Ministry ... For many years the Diocese of Saginaw has welcomed our migrant brothers and sisters, who travel from all over the country and from other countries, to work in the fields. Let us welcome the migrant workers and make an effort to share the many blessings. Our Christian Service Commission will be collecting donations of food and clothing in the Gathering Room May 20th through June 3rd. Monetary donations may be forwarded to: Catholic Diocese of Saginaw, Office of Hispanic Ministry, 5800 Weiss St., Saginaw, MI 48603  (Please note on check Migrant Ministry).

You Are Cordially Invited As we gather together in the eyes of The Lord, please join us in prayer and friendship in celebrating the Priestly Ordination of God's newest disciple, Deacon Thomas Held on Friday, May 18th at 2:00p at the Cathedral of St. Mary, 615 Hoyt Avenue, Saginaw.

125th Anniversary Help us celebrate our 125th Anniversary by ordering your Polo shirts, long and short sleeve tee-shirts and hooded sweat shirts. Shirt orders will be taken now thru Sunday, May 13th in the gathering room soon. For more information, please call Chris at 892-9886.

Have Mothers Day Breakfast with Us! Sunday, May 13th from 8:30a - 12:30p we are having a Mother's Day breakfast with all the fixings. Made to order omelets! Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus #2740., 1021 Woodside Avenue.
